f) An annual sub-committee is formed comprising of two (2) Committee members, of which one must be the President, and two (2) Life members who will review the nomination.

g) The sub-committee will make life membership recommendations to the Committee which requires a 75% majority vote. Recommendations must be clearly recognized, respected, acknowledged and endorsed by Club members.

h) The sub-committee has the right to withhold a nomination where they consider that nomination should not be progressed due to the nominee having brought the club into disrepute or acted inappropriately.

i) A maximum of two Members may be inducted as Life Members per season. In extenuating circumstances, additional inductions may be considered at the discretion of the Committee.

j) The award will be formally presented at Presentation Night including an item to commemorate the honour.

k) Recipients will be listed on the Honour Board in the Clubrooms and acknowledged on the Club's website. Life Members will receive an open invitation to attend all official Club events. Life Members will be exempt from Club membership fees.

l) In exceptional circumstances, a Life Membership Award may be revoked if the recipient has conducted themselves in a manner that negatively impacts the Club's image or activities. Retraction of Life Membership requires unanimous agreement from the Executive Committee to proceed. As outlined in the Dispute Resolution Clause (Bylaw 23), the affected Life Member must be given an opportunity to present their case in defense of retaining their Life Membership.

19. FUNDRAISING

a) Individuals wishing to conduct fundraising activities under the Club's name must obtain prior approval from the Committee. A detailed rationale outlining the purpose and objectives of the fundraising activity must be provided.

b) All Members are strongly encouraged to support fundraising initiatives organised by the Committee to contribute to the Club's ongoing success.

20. COURSES, SEMINARS & OTHER OPPORTUNITIES

The Club values the growth and development of its Members and Club Officials and is committed to providing opportunities for skill enhancement through courses, seminars, and personal development activities. These may include Coaching courses, Umpiring courses, RSA courses, First Aid courses, and other relevant training. To support this commitment:

a) The Club will notify Members of upcoming opportunities in a timely manner to facilitate participation.

b) Members are encouraged to engage in these activities to strengthen their skills and contribute to the Club's success.

c) The Club may offer financial reimbursement for costs associated with attending activities, subject to Committee approval on a case-by-case basis. By actively fostering member engagement in these development programs, the Club aims to support individual growth while ensuring the continued advancement of the Finley Football Netball Club.

21. ACCREDITATION

Working with Children Check number and expiry date must be provided to the Club Secretary for inclusion on the WWCC Register prior to season commencement including pre-season activities where applicable.

Cybersecurity

Finley Football Netball Club places a strong emphasis on the responsible and appropriate use of information and communication to benefit all members. The club acknowledges that technology can sometimes enable inappropriate or anti-social behaviour. Therefore, we aim to maximise the positive use of technology while minimizing and managing associated risks by adhering to the FFNC Communication Policy, FFNC Code of Conduct and relevant guidelines and codes of conduct set by our affiliated bodies such as Netball Victoria Cyber Safety Policy.

Member Wellbeing

Finley Football Netball Club are committed to fostering and supporting the mental health and wellbeing of the entire club community through positive club practices and support mechanisms. The FFNC Mental Health and Wellbeing Committee is fundamental to supporting our club community - FFNC Mental Health and Wellbeing Policy.

23. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The Committee reserves the right to impose penalties on any Member who fails to comply with the Club's Bylaws.

a) If a member disagrees with a penalty or Committee action under these Bylaws, they may submit an appeal within 48 hours of the decision.

b) Following an appeal, the Committee may:

   i. Review the issue, consult the relevant individual, and make a final decision, which will be communicated verbally or in writing.

   ii. Conduct an informal meeting with the parties involved to discuss and resolve the matter amicably.

   iii. The Committee's decision is final.

24. INDEMNITY

Except where provided or required by law and such cannot be excluded, the Finley Football Netball Club and its respective directors, committee members, officers, members, servants or agents are absolved from all liability, however arising from injury or damage, however caused, arising whilst participating as a member.

25. AMENDMENTS

a) Amendments to these Bylaws may only be made at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) or at a Special General Meeting (SGM).

b) A Special General Meeting may be requested by any Financial Member by submitting a written request to the Club Secretary. Any such request is subject to approval by the Committee.

c) Upon Committee approval, an SGM will be scheduled, and Members will be provided no less than 21 days' notice of the meeting.

d) Any proposed amendments must be submitted in writing to the Club Secretary no later than 7 days prior to the scheduled SGM or by the timeframe specified for the AGM.

e) The amendment will be approved if the majority of Members present at the AGM or SGM vote in favour. If a majority vote is not achieved, the proposed amendment will be rejected and the By-laws will remain unchanged.

26. Special Circumstances/Provisions Clause

Where this By-law is silent, a decision can be made that ensures the integrity of the Finley Football Netball Club is maintained at all times.

The Committee may in using its reasonable discretion, in exceptional or extenuating circumstances, alter, vary or waive the requirements set out in this By-Law relating to the Finley Football Netball Club.

GENERAL EXPECTATIONS

Committee members are expected to:

- Fulfill their responsibilities diligently in their nominated position.
- Comply with the Club's Constitution, Bylaws and Regulations.
- Conduct themselves ethically, with honesty and integrity.
- Treat all Club stakeholders - including members, players, sponsors, volunteers, and fellow Committee Members - with respect.
- Maintain a zero-tolerance approach to harassment, bullying, or discrimination.
- Always represent the Club in a professional and positive manner.
- Act as a role model by demonstrating good sporting behaviour.
- Be open to feedback and respond appropriately and respectfully.
- Make decisions in the best interests of the Club, not for personal gain.
- Prioritise the welfare and enjoyment of members over on-field or on-court success.
- Avoid using their committee position for personal benefit.
- Respect and properly use Club equipment and resources for authorized Club purposes only.
- Avoid excessive alcohol consumption at Club functions and refrain from engaging in Committee matters while under the influence.

Committee Meetings:

- Attend all meetings or provide an apology in advance if unable to attend.
- Review the agenda and relevant correspondence prior to meetings.
- Submit any agenda items in advance and be prepared to contribute to discussions.

- Listen attentively, maintain an open mind, and engage respectfully.
- Contribute positively and constructively – avoid interrupting or speaking over others.
- Seek opportunities to enhance the Club's operations and performance.
- Immediately disclose any conflicts of interest to ensure transparency and protect the Club's integrity.

CONSEQUENCES FOR BREACH OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

A breach of the Committee Code of Conduct is considered a serious offence.

If the Committee, by majority vote, determines that a Committee Member has:

i. Persistently refused or neglected to comply with the Code of Conduct.

ii. Persistently or willfully breached the Code of Conduct.

iii. Persistently or willfully acted in a manner detrimental to the interests of the Club.

The Committee may, at a formal Committee Meeting, resolve to:

i. Remove the Member from their position before the end of their term (the next AGM) in accordance with the Constitution.

ii. Suspend the Member from their position for a specified period, during which they will not participate in any capacity.

In accordance with the Dispute Resolution Clause 23 in the Finley Football Netball Club Bylaws, any Member who disagrees with a penalty or Committee decision may submit an appeal within 48 hours of the ruling
